American Legion Post 68 Leland changes name to honor local soldier

Richard N. Fry Your Voice Correspondent

Published 5:01 a.m. ET Dec. 2, 2019

The American Legion, founded in 1919, is the largest organization of U.S. military veterans. Focusing on service to veterans, service members and communities, its membership stands at nearly 2 million in more than 13,000 posts worldwide. Each American Legion Post may adopt a name in honor of a deceased veteran.

Post 68 has recently received permission to rename itself in honor of Private First-Class John Edwin Jacobs, United States Army, the only service member from Leland, North Carolina, to be killed in action during the Vietnam War. Post 68's new charter stipulates that it will hereafter be named the John E. Jacobs American Legion Post 68, Leland, NC, Inc., Department of North Carolina. Each year on Memorial Day, Post 68 members join the Jacobs family for a flag placement ceremony at his final resting place.

John's parents, Mr. John and Mildred Jacobs, and his sister, Reverend Martha Jacobs, are honored that the Post is paying tribute to John's sacrifice in this manner. Reverend Jacobs said, "Our loved one, a soldier, never dies as long as he is remembered. God does everything for a reason; the solemnity of Post 68's action is heartwarming. The family gratitude is beyond any words that we can express."

John was born in Leland on December 4, 1947. He was a 1967 graduate of what was formerly known as Lincoln High School. John was drafted into the U.S. Army in March 1968. Following training, he was assigned to B Company, 1st Battalion, 11th

Infantry, 5th Infantry Division as a Combat Infantryman. While on patrol in Quang Tri Province, South Vietnam on October 1, 1968 his unit was ambushed, and Pfc John Edwin Jacobs was killed by small arms fire.

To mark the renaming of Post 68, the Jacobs family and Post 68 will sponsor a reception to celebrate John's life. The reception will be held from 4-6 p.m. Saturday, December 14, at the Brunswick Community College Leland Center. In addition to family, friends, and Post 68 members, confirmed guests include Leland Mayor Brenda Boseman and Leland Town Councilwoman-elect Veronica Carter. Ms. Carter will be the guest speaker.

While John's time in the Army was brief, he gallantly served our nation.

Never let us forget that "Freedom is Never Free."

Mobile Vet Centers hit the road to reach veterans

BY DYLAN PHILLIPS
BRUNSWICK BEACON EDITOR

United States Veterans Affairs Mobile Vet Centers provide invaluable support and services to America's veterans by meeting them where they are. The local Mobile Vet Center visited Leland earlier this month to showcase the vehicle's capabilities and inform the community of the services it provides.

The Veterans Affairs (VA) Department has 83 Mobile Vet Centers (MVCs), described as large mobile vehicles with that provide space for confidential counseling — including individual, group, marriage and family counseling — used to reach eligible individuals residing in communities distant from other existing services. These services are provided at no cost to eligible individuals.

MVCs are an offshoot of the VA's 300-plus Vet Centers. These centers were founded in 1979 as a response to a significant number of Vietnam War veterans still experiencing readjustment problems years after returning home.

The Vet Centers "are community-based counseling centers that provide a wide range of social and psychological services, including professional counseling."

MVC counselors can access VA records through an encrypted connection, but stressed that all client information shared remains confidential. Records and services also easily transferable to other Vet Centers and MVCs should a client move to a different state or area, for example.

There are two MVCs based in North Carolina, with the closest based in nearby Jacksonville. That MVC made a trip down the coast into Brunswick County on Tuesday, Aug. 13, stopping at the Brunswick Community College Leland Center as part of the John E. Jacobs American of

Post 68 Commander Bea Frost, asked about the MVCs recent visit to Leland, said, "On behalf of the Leland veteran community, we appreciate the opportunity to learn about VA's mobile capability. The ability to bring services to veterans and their families in areas where access to VA's brick and mortar facilities may not be that easy is essential. We are confident that there are veterans in our rural areas who can benefit from this capability. The challenge is and has been to successfully we reach out to them."

Jacksonville Vet Center Director Chris O'Brian and Veterans Outreach Program Specialist

Brian Carey, both of whom are certified mental health counselors, drove the MVC down to Leland for the event.

The Jacksonville-based MVC covers a roughly 3,500-mile radius and travels as far south as Brunswick County and to Duplin County to the northwest, Carey said.

Carey explained the initial purpose of MVCs was to specifically reach veterans in rural communities and, he noted, that is still the overall purpose. However, the reach has expanded over the years.

"It covers everyone that's under the military umbrella," Carey said. This includes not only veterans, but active duty service member, retirees, reserves, National Guard and military spouses, he added.

"What's very unique about the Vet Center is, there's no time limit, there's no cost, they don't play musical counselors" said Carey. "Because every visit should just be a continuation. ... How frustrating is it every time you go to a doctor, it's a new doctor — it's like starting over. In the Vet Center, that's not the case."

The MVC that visited Brunswick County earlier this month is brand new and was delivered roughly one month ago, Carey said.

Asked about locations the local MVC primarily visits in its service area, Carey said they have really been focused on making stops at community colleges lately. They also visit social events, like music festivals.

"We'll do virtually any event where it's almost a given you're going to have a veteran [in attendance]," he added.

MEMBERSHIP ELIGIBILITY

On July 30, 2019, President Trump signed into law the LEGION Act (Let Everyone Get Involved In Opportunities for National Service Act) that declares the United States has been in a state of war since Dec. 7th, 1941.

Therefore, any person shall be eligible for membership in The American Legion who was a member of the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Air Force, or Coast Guard of the United States and assigned to active duty at some time since December 7, 1941, and has been honorably discharged or is still serving.

Because eligibility dates now remain open, all active-duty members of the U.S. Armed Forces are eligible to join The American Legion at this time, until the date of the end of hostilities as determined by the United States.

WREATHS ACROSS AMERICA

WHY JOIN THE AMERICAN LEGION?

Do You Remember?

Do you remember the tediousness of garrison life? Do you remember the interminable hurry up and wait? Do you remember the inane make-work projects you were ordered to do? And the only thing that you could count on were your buddies. And you knew they were counting on you.

Your buddies still need you!!!

Maybe a buddy is homeless or in one of the VA hospitals or dealing with PTSD or other physical or mental disabilities. Maybe he or she is in financial straits or suffered devastating losses due to natural disasters.

Or maybe he or she is a young veteran, just discharged from service, having difficulty finding a civilian job.

The American Legion is the place for you to help your buddy and for your buddy to help you. Founded in 1919, it is the largest veteran's organization in the United States with over 3 million members.

Post 68 is all about Veterans serving Veterans in the Leland, NC area. We work closely with Brunswick County Veterans Services, Brunswick Family Assistance, and other service organizations to identify and assist veterans and their families in need. We participate in many community activities such as parades, memorials, dedications, etc.

We sponsor local students to participate in Boys State and Girls State and provide scholarships to better educate our children. We also support the North Brunswick High School JROTC.

We are veterans just like you. We care about America, our fellow veterans, our families, and our children. As a member of our Post, we continue to serve our God, our Country, and our community. Your Post needs you now!

Donates to Frans Fans

WECT's (Channel 6 Wilmington) Frances Weller started Fran's Fans more than 20 years ago. Her program collects fans from the community and delivers them to senior centers in Bladen, Brunswick, Columbus, New Hanover and Pender counties. From there, the fans are distributed to senior citizens to help keep them cool during the summer months. Lowe's Home Improvement stores in these counties have turned Fran's collection drive into a competition to see which store sells the most fans. The winner is awarded Fran's coveted Golden Fan. In 2023 the Lowe's store in Southport won with a collection of more than 700 fans. Lowes Home Improvement in Leland has been an ardent supporter of the John E. Dental Care Provided to Eligible Low-Income Veterans

Under the Department of Veterans Affairs criteria for dental care, it is estimated that only 15 percent of veterans qualify for dental care at a VA facility. On August 23 the East Carolina University Dental Clinic provided free dental care to low-income veterans, thanks to generous donations from a variety of veteran support organizations in Brunswick County. The annual event provides a unique opportunity for eligible low-income veterans to receive needed dental care at little or no cost. On the day of the clinic representatives from John E. Jacobs American Legion Post 68 Leland and Richard H. Stewart Post 543 St. James presented checks totaling $2,500 to the Veterans Smiles Foundation (VSF). The presentation, to David McCracken, VSF founder, was at the East Carolina University Dental Clinic during its dental assistance day. Both Legion Posts have made similar donations to the VSF over the last several years.

RECENT HAPPENINGS AT LEGION POST 68

VEAC SUCCESS. The 7th annual Veteran's Experience Action Center (VEAC) held at the National Guard Armory in Wilmington on May 8 – 10th was an overwhelming success. American Legion Post 68 Leland was one of several area Legion Posts to provide significant manpower in ensuring the event's success. Over the three-day period, VA claims specialists and Veterans Service Officers from local veterans organizations helped initiate, process, and adjudicate disability claims for over 800 veterans – the largest outcome since the event has been held in Wilmington. Due to time limitations, an additional 100 veterans could not be served onsite and were slotted for service by VA raters over the next several weeks. Wilmington area veterans as well as veterans from several states as far away as Texas and New York participated in the event.

JROTC PRESENTATION TO POST 68. At the general membership meeting of the John E.
